My amazing week

The day before the start of the project I was so excited, because.. I had that feeling when something is gonna happen, but you don't know if it's going to be right or it will be a total failure. But right now I'm feeling so stupid, because after the end I realized that I had worried for nothing.

Sunday

Let's start from the very beginning. Sunday was the day when I met my guest from Italy. I was waiting for them with my friends from the project and our teachers at the bus station. Their bus arrived in time. At this moment I was so excited, because this was my first time having a guest from other country. They were very friendly and charming. After we met each other. Me and Michele (The Italian boy) went to my house where we take a quick brake to get to know each other. After a long conversation and a cup of coffee. we went to the biggest mall in my town with the Italian group and their hosts. We got diner there and a little bit of shopping.

Monday

Monday was the day we broke the ice. We had a quick speech from our headmaster. After that we had some presentations about every country in the project. After the session in the evening the Italian group and the hosts went to a club.

We went back home at around 21:00 and had a dinner with my family.

Tuesday

On Tuesday we had a trip to Veliko Turnovo. For me it wasn't so interesting because I had been there hundreds of times but it was so satisfying to see the amusement on the face of all of the kids because we saw amazing things there.

Wednesday

By this time of the week we have known each other very well. This day was full of amazing moments. We had a trip around Pleven. We went to Panorama of Pleven and the wine museum which is the only wine museum pleased in a cave in Europe. We were a little bit disappointed, because wine degustation was only for the teachers. But this doesn't stop us going to bowling party that night. We had amazing game of bowling and poll at the local bowling club.

Thursday

Tuesday we had a long trip to the capital city of Bulgaria, it took around 3 hours but it worth. There we saw just a little from the whole beauty of Sofia. We went to the biggest mall in Sofia. Had some lunch there, ride some bumping cars. Everything was perfect disparte the fact that we had only one more day left.

Friday

This was the worst day from the whole week because it was the last. I can't say a lot about this day, but generally it was full of laughter, tears, promises to meet each other again and going through this 5 days to memorize the best parts of this week. I can say that this was the best week of my life because I met a lot of new people which I wan to see again.

To everyone who is reading this, remember that family and friends are priceless.
