My adventure in Bulgaria

My adventure began on Sunday late in the evening. At 9:00 I went to the station to take the kids from Greece Andreas and Ilias. I was very embarrassed because I did not know them and they were elder than me. We went back home and had dinner. We talked for one hour and we went to sleep because they were tired.

The next day, we got up early to go to school. They were surprised by the school because it was very large. At school I met children from other countries. They were very nice and entertaining children. Each country presented presentation of the history of the country. They were very exciting and interesting. After that people started dancing and singing songs. After an hour dancing and singing we went to the center. We saw some landmarks and went home for dinner.

The next day we were on a tour. First we were in Lovech to see the covered bridge. Then we went to Veliko Tarnovo to visit some sights. After an hour wandering we went to eat somewhere. We found a nice and cozy pizzeria. We ate and went to the bus. After an hour trip to Troyan finally arrived at the monastery. Some went into it and the other didn't. Finally we left for Pleven. We came back and we cooked traditional cheese pie. They really like it and they wanted more.

On Wednesday morning we got up early because I had to go back to school. It was the first of March - our holiday school we did martenitsi and away. Then we showed our the traditional spring we had Bulgarian traditional hour we went to Panorama. pictures and went by bus to wine. There also did a lot of pictures but teachers didn't let us try the wine. Then we went back and had dinner. After dinner we decided to play bowling. We had fun but we were very tired and went home.

The next day we were on a trip to Sofia. We visited Alexander Nevsky, then went to the presidency and then to the mall. There we ate and did some shopping. After the mall we went to the Museum of History and then went home.

On the last day we had a lot of free time. The boys organized to play football. It was a great fun and the weather was very pleasant. After the game we went back for lunch and then back to school. At school featured photos of the week and voted on which is the best. Andreas, one of the boys I hosted, won the competition. He was surprised. After school we went to prepare for the farewell dinner in a restaurant. The traditional food was very tasty and we enjoyed everything a lot. But in the end all of us were sad because our new friends were leaving the following morning. We came back later home and the children began to pack their bags. I went to bed right away because I had to get up at 5:00 in the morning. I said goodbye to them at the station and went home.
